

The KINGDOM of the LION

“⁴The first was like a lion and had the wings of an EAGLE. I kept looking until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a man; a human mind also was given to it.”

The depiction of the Lion as a national symbol has in the past and today been claimed by at least 15 nations from as far back as the Bronze Age, and by ancient Egypt.¹ So which Lion nation / kingdom was he referring to?

This prophetic Lion nation would arise just prior to the fourth beast coming out of the great sea of the Latter-days. We should be looking for a Lion kingdom of the Latter-Days that will ARISE prior to the return of the Lord to this earth.

There is no other nation today that so represents the LION nation as does England.

The three lions represent the three parts of the UK;

- The Lion of England
- The Scottish Unicorn
- The Harp of Ireland

Great Britain came into being officially in 1707. It was once the major superpower of their time, having power over 1/5 of the world’s population. At their height, they were the largest empire in the world and held power for over 100 years, being know for having a superior navy. There was a time when it could be said of England that “The sun never set on the English flag.” Today that is not the case.

The American colonies signed their Declaration of Independence over 250 years ago in 1776. America severed their political connections with Great Britain, and as it is seen in Daniels prophetic imagery the wings of the Lion were plucked off (as by force). The wings according to Daniel were “Eagle wings” v4. Then the two eagle wings were lifted up and made to stand on its own two feet like a man and a human mind was given to it, and with it the United States of America was born ... America’s national symbol is the eagle with its wings spread open ... prophecy fulfilled.

The once powerful Great Britain began to decline with the loss of many of its colonies. This modern, end time superpower was never conquered, but it did lose its supremacy.
