

Chapter 15

The Seven Last Plagues

A Scene in Heaven

Revelation 15:1-4 (NASB), ¹Then I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous, seven angels who had seven plagues, which are the last, because in them the wrath of God is finished. ²And I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had been victorious over the beast and his image and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, holding harps of God. ³And they sang the song of Moses, the bond-servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying,

“Great and marvelous are Your works,
O Lord God, the Almighty;

Righteous and true are Your ways,
King of the nations!

⁴“Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify Your name?

For You alone are holy;

For all the nations will come and worship before You,

For Your righteous acts have been revealed.”

he last set of seven judgments are about to be unleashed upon the earth and an unbelieving and unrepentive mankind. John says he saw seven angels having the last seven plagues in bowls which they carried and each bowl was filled with the wrath of God

John was also given a view of what he called a SEA of GLASS before the throne of God. On this sea of glass were those of the redeemed who had (through their death) had their victory over the beast, over his image, and over his mark. In this we can see the reward for those who are FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH and had not taken the mark of the beast.

Notice John makes no mention of the church here. The church is in the new city, the NEW JERUSALEM, which is their inheritance (Rev. 21:9-10).

Revelation 15:1-8 (NASB), ⁵ After these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of testimony in heaven was opened, ⁶ and the seven angels who had the seven plagues came out of the temple, clothed in linen, clean and bright, and girded around their chests with golden sashes. ⁷ Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. ⁸ And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power; and no one was able to enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished.
