

Daniel 9:24

"Seventy weeks are determined upon your people and upon your holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy."

Daniel's 70 Week Prophecy

Six Reasons Given

Artaxerxes Commandment to restore and to rebuild Jerusalem Nehemiah 2:1-8

The Seventy Week Prophecy can only be fulfilled while the Jews are in their Land.

Note: 70 weeks that have been determined upon the people of Daniel and his holy city are for a certain purpose, and can only be fulfilled while the Jews are occupying their own land (remember the 70 weeks are concerning the Jews only while they are in possession of Jerusalem).

1. To Finish the transgression

Israel's transgression was their rejection of Jesus as Messiah, first on a national level, religious/political leaders then the common people rejected him. Lu. 19:39-44, 47; 23:1, 21, 23

2. Make an end of sins

To stop Jewish sin of rejecting their Messiah. They will accept Jesus as Messiah.

3. Make Reconciliation for iniquity

A national reconciliation with God by faith in Jesus Christ. A Day of Atonement with their Messiah.

4. Bring in Every lasting Righteousness

This has to do with the Jewish people and Jerusalem. Israel will become the head of the nations with the world capital in Jerusalem.

5. Seal the vision & prophecy

Almost all prophecies have come by the Jews. This will stop. The time of the prophets of God will be over, since He who is perfect is here.

6. Anoint the Most High

Anoint means to rub with oil, to consecrate. Jesus Christ is the only one who can be called the Most High. Jesus qualifies for succession to the throne on both counts as Man (Son of David) and as God.
